From Old Ironsides to “..one if by land..” your tour today will explore the highlights of Boston’s part in our countries history during the Revolutionary War.

Your knowledgeable guide will tell the stories of the people, the places and events as you visit the USS Constitution, the Old North Church, the Boston Common and Bunker Hill. Hear about the original "Tea Party" and visit Paul Reverses House.

You'll have time in the morning during a walk thru the North End for a coffee/cannoli break. Your tour will conclude at Quincy Market where you can shop, have lunch (on your own) and just plain people watch at the most visited historic area in Boston.

You will be back to your hotel by late afternoon.
